DMS WIRELESS announces new Antenna Distributor: www.1wirelessway.com

DMS WIRELESS is proud to announce its new web based distributor: www.1wirelessway.com. For quick and easy purchase of quality DMS antennas, now you purchase direct from an ecommerce website at your convenience: www.1wirelessway.com. This distributor supplies all the quality products from DMS WIRELESS and offers them to the wireless industry from a website that is easy to navigate and to purchase at competitive prices.

Tim Heinrichs, CEO of DMS WIRELESS, states "We are pleased to complete our negotiations with www.1wirelessway.com which is a professional website dedicated solely for supply of our complete array of wireless broadband products. This site will give the wireless industry a new venue for purchase of the wide selection of DMS antennas without having to sift or shuffle through unnecessary multiple windows and information."

It's quick to browse www.1wirelessway.com once a frequency category is chosen: 216 MHz up to 6 GHz. Each frequency lists the different types of antennas available such as sectors, omnis, grids, yagis, CPE flat planars, magnetic mounts, rubber duck dipoles or other antennas and installation hardware. Select your antenna, add it to the shopping cart and check out. It's so easy. The orders are released to DMS and antennas ship direct from DMS with tracking information on invoice emailed on date of shipment. Customer Service and Sales processes are efficient and focused on service and communications. Give the site a try and you will order all your wireless broadband antennas from www.1wirelessway.com.

Feel free to contact DMS WIRELESS if you have any questions or comments.
